At School (Respect!)

Synopsis

Great for supporting Citizenship and PSHE in upper KS2 and KS3, this is an ideal library information book for every primary, middle and secondary school. Full of quizzes, photo stories, quotes from children and questions to consider, it gets readers thinking about the issues and how they might respond to given situations. Lively text and engaging photos and illustrations present complex issues in clear and attractive terms. It covers such subjects as why schools need rules, bullying, making group decisions, self-respect, gangs, peer pressure and litter. Formerly published as "Young Citizen at School", this is certain to capture the attention of all readers.
