A Ranger To Stand With (Lone Star Ranger Book 5)

Synopsis

Texas Ranger Nate Stewart has been through a lot in his life—and his losses aren't over yet. In the months that Nate has ridden with Captain Quincy and his Rangers, his best friend and pardner, Hoot Harrison, has been the rock Nate has depended on. But once beautiful Clarissa Hennessey comes into Hoot's life, she sets out to destroy the friendship between the two young Rangers. When the chips are down and Black Dog's raiders attack the Hennessey ranch, there's bound to be bloodshed and lives lost. Will Clarissa divide Hoot and Nate forever, or can Hoot prove that he's A RANGER TO STAND WITH?

Customer Reviews

Griffin's series on the rangers is a good read for those into the Western genre. Enjoy!

Jim Griffin's fifth entry in the growing western epic tale of Nate Stewart throws more than a handful of trouble at the young Texas Ranger. Bullets fly, blood's spilled, snow falls, and deadly, sucking mud threatens horse and rider alike. From fights with renegade cattle thieves and Black Dog's Comanche warriors to struggles against extremes of climate and trials of the heart, readers of all ages will feel the impact of Nate's world through Jim Griffin's clear, clean prose. As before, Griffin shows his knowledge of the west throughout. I especially enjoyed a quick lesson on the fast draw. Much recommended.

A very good surprising story about life inside a squad of Texas Rangers - It differs from other stories that focus is on the men in the unit and the issues they face and conquer,

TELLS A GOOD STORY!

I have read all 5 in this series and can't wait for another. Best if read in the order they are written. I highly recommend this series and this author.
