Customer Reviews

I love this series, but after I bought them I couldn't even read because my kindle is somehow incompatible with the book content. Even though on the selling page it says I can read it on any device! So basically they took my money for nothing. Thanks so much now I will NEVER buy any book on the kindlefire!

Although it is short it does at least it gives you an accurate page count (66 pages) and it isn't as short as some. The story and characters are interesting, the artwork is good and it is enjoyable. As light entertainment this is worth reading. If you expect much more than that you may be disappointed.

I liked the story plot to the story, it was a classic anime with the type of drawing and theme. It's a cliché that it's about maids but personally I like it like that. I disliked that the type of people the characters are is unclear as I would want, I recommend this book though (out of the few anime)

This first episode (as they called it in the title) really sets a tone. It was kind of hard to follow at times. But it was cute how much passion the main girl (Caren) had for wanting to be a maid. I thought overall this comic was cute, funny, and loveable!!!

AS A ANIME GEEK/DORK I AM IN LOVE WITH THIS SERIES.....IT IS THE BEST SO FAR. MY FAVORITE OF COURSE IS KAZUMASA HAHHAHAHA

It's a personal issue of mine I'm sure, but the premise of a girl making her lifelong dream to become a faithful servant is something I find a little stupid and unsettling, so that carries with me through every page in the story. I'm giving it this many stars because the artwork is okay, and I bought episode two, which says something.

I like both the first one and second. It was short but detailed and I love the plot line and I give it a 5 of 5. (I wrote a review on the first episode)

The manga is a bit rushed and not very detailed at all. I still liked it though but think the price was a little steep for the quality of book it is.
