This year 2010 summer July when I went back to Hong Kong and stayed with one of my dearest sisters, Miranda's house, she let me sleeping in her studying room. My sister, Miranda, loves to buy many spiritual books, and also she is always so generous to buy the extra copies giving to her another twin sister, Marianna and me. While I was staying in her house, I looked around her bookshelves and found a book named "Miracles Do Happen" translated in Chinese. The book is very thin and small, and I don't know why I am attracted by the book. When I was first reading it, I didn't pay any attention and was more attractive the sisters gathering during the visit. For some reasons, I have desire wanted to finish it, so I decided stealing the book and bringing it back without telling my sister until recently I finished it. After finished reading this book, I am unable to start another book because I am still overwhelming for what Sr. Briege's writings..... I also decided to order 10 copies in English and distributed to my relatives and friends. I might consider to order another 10 copies for the RCIA candidates for their baptism. I grew up with lot of Catholic educational background, and I was very active in my Hong Kong Catholic Church, but it was only after reading Sr. Briege McKenna's book that I really recognized the power of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. I started preciously taking the moment of the intimate time by receiving the Holy Eucharist. I take that moment telling Jesus my physically, mentally, and emotionally pain and praying His mercy in healing me and touching me. Sr. Briege reminds us of what we have in our Catholic Church/Faith and that Christ is a REAL PERSON in the Eucharist. Sr.
