Philippians

Synopsis

This 4-week series on Philippians includes daily devotionals and weekly bible studies for individuals, cell groups, and families. The daily devotionals guide you through meditations on verses, reflection questions, and practical applications. Bible studies guide church cell groups with study and application questions along with cell group activities. Family bible studies and devotionals provide weekly bible study and character lessons, and hands-on activities for young children and parents. By following this intensive and exciting 4-week journey, you and your church will delve deeper into the theology of Philippians and gain a greater understanding of God's salvation plan.
