Customer Reviews

Children watch movies over and over again, so why not use some of those movies to help them grow in faith! Grab their attention with a short clip of a popular movie. Follow that with the well-written, age-appropriate Devotion questions as a catalyst to life changing conversations about faith in God. Best part is the author chose movies that are most likely in your own home video/dvd collections.

Overall the book is a great launch pad but certainly not sufficient to be used as a stand alone. I would look at other books that offer similar video devotionals, about 95% of the start times for the movies are inaccurate. Unless you seen the movie you will spend a large amount of time trying to find the scenes to make the lesson work. The Publisher is aware of the problem.

The book is set up nicely and easy to follow. It was helpful in our Sunday School rotational class.
